

The College at BROCKPORT
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

November 17, 2009

Logan Rath
Drake Library

Dear Logan:

Congratulations! After careful review and consultation with the Deans, I have forwarded President Halstead the Division of Academic Affairs recommendations for 2008-2009 DSI awards. It is my pleasure, to inform you that you have been selected to receive a DSI award in the amount of $1000.

Please note that the DSI awards are retroactive to July 1, 2009 for professional employees with calendar or college year obligations, September 1, 2009 for employees with academic year obligations who receive 26 paychecks per year, and to August 20, 2009 for persons who receive 21 pay periods. Awards are scheduled to be paid in the payroll check dated December 9, 2009.

As usual, competition for DSI awards was keen this year. Your dedication, hard work and highly effective performance have earned you this distinguished honor. I sincerely appreciate your past contributions to Academic Affairs and to the College, and I look forward to your continued success in the future.

If you have questions concerning the DSI review process, you may consult with the dean for your area.

Best wishes,

Anne E. Huot, PhD
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

AEH/amm

cc: Human Resources
Frank M. Wojcik, Associate Provost, Library, Information and Technology Services

The College at BROCKPORT
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

October 29, 2010

Logan Rath
Drake Library

Dear Logan:

Congratulations! After careful review, I have forwarded to President Halstead the Division of Academic Affairs recommendations for 2009-2010 DSI awards. It is my pleasure to inform you that you have been selected to receive a DSI award in the amount of $1000.

Please note that the DSI awards are retroactive to July 1, 2010, for professional employees with calendar or college year obligations; to September 1, 2010, for employees with academic year obligations who receive 26 paychecks per year; and to August 19, 2010, for persons who receive 21 pay periods. Awards are scheduled to be paid in the payroll check dated November 24, 2010.

As usual, competition for DSI awards was keen this year. Your dedication, hard work and highly effective performance have earned you this honor. I appreciate your past contributions to Academic Affairs and to the College, and I look forward to your continued success in the future.

If you have questions concerning the DSI review process, you may consult with Dr. Wojcik.

Respectfully,

Anne E. Huot, PhD
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

AEH/cpk

cc: Human Resources
Dr. Frank Wojcik, Associate Provost and CIO

The College at BROCKPORT
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

October 31, 2011

Logan Rath
Drake Library

Dear Logan:

Congratulations! After careful review, I have forwarded to President Halstead the Division of Academic Affairs recommendations for 2010-2011 DSI awards, and it is my pleasure to inform you that you have been selected to receive a DSI award in the amount of $1000.

Please note that the DSI awards are retroactive to July 1, 2011, for professional employees with calendar or college year obligations; to September 1, 2011, for employees with academic year obligations who receive 26 paychecks per year; and to August 18, 2011, for persons who receive 21 pay periods. Awards are scheduled to be paid in the payroll check dated December 7, 2011.

As usual, competition for DSI awards was keen this year. Your dedication, hard work and highly effective performance have earned you this honor. I appreciate your past contributions to Academic Affairs and to the College, and I look forward to your continued success in the future.

If you have questions concerning the DSI review process, you may consult with Dr. Frank Wojcik, Associate Provost and CIO.

Respectfully,

Anne E. Huot, PhD
Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs

AEH/cpk

cc: Human Resources